

Cooper Standard Issues 2020 Corporate Responsibility Report Highlighting Record Safety Performance, Customer Recognition and COVID-19 Response

May 19, 2021

NORTHVILLE, MI / ACCESSWIRE / May 19, 2021 / Cooper Standard (NYSE:CPS) today issued its 2020 Corporate Responsibility Report (CRR), titled "Stronger: Teams, Partnerships, Business," offering insight on topics deemed important by the Company's stakeholders, including its record safety performance, customer recognition, talent management, innovation, diversity and inclusion and an overview of its COVID-19 actions and accomplishments.

Following the Company's 2019 ESG materiality assessment, Cooper Standard engaged its Global Leadership Team to set forward-looking targets for many of its significant topic areas. These long-term targets address both management and performance across ESG and product-related activities.

"As the Company grows stronger, we continue to push our horizons," said Jeffrey Edwards, chairman and CEO, Cooper Standard. "We are building on our successes and learning from our challenges. I'm pleased to share our progress towards our long-term goals supporting key environmental, social and governance material topics."

Cooper Standard's strategic goal-setting process helps ensure the Company provides information to its stakeholders in a transparent, consistent way and informs key decisions for its business. The following is a list of the Company's 2020 ESG goals. Detailed metrics for each of these goals can be found in the 2020 CRR report here.

- Talent Strategy: Achieve world-class performance in talent strategy and continue to improve the diversity of its global workforce;
- Workplace Health & Safety: Continue building a world-class safety culture;
- Community Involvement: Continue giving back to communities where we work and live;
- Innovation, Materials & Product Lifecycle: Embed sustainability throughout the Company's daily business activities;
- Product Quality & Safety: Continue driving proactive efforts to help prevent workplace incidents;
- Customer Satisfaction: Continue to listen to the voice of the customer to meet or exceed their needs and expectations;
- Information & Data Security: Strengthen and improve the Company's data and information security processes and infrastructure;
- Ethics & Compliance: Maintain a world-class reputation for conducting honest, ethical and responsible business practices;
- Human Rights: Implement screening efforts with the Company's GROW suppliers (those with whom the Company has decided to strategically grow its business); and
- Energy, Emissions & Waste: Reduce the Company's impact on the environment.

"Cooper Standard is making strides to sharpen our sustainability strategy further, focusing on climate change, the low-carbon economy, and circularity," said Edwards. "After we conduct our updated materiality assessment in 2021, Cooper Standard will refine and enhance our ESG goals to make sure they align with our stakeholder and customer expectations."

To learn more about these goals and other aspects of Cooper Standard's commitment to corporate responsibility, click here to view the full 2020 CRR.

About Cooper Standard

Cooper Standard, headquartered in Northville, Mich., is a leading global supplier of systems and components in diverse transportation and industrial markets. Products include sealing, fuel and brake delivery and fluid transfer systems. Cooper Standard employs approximately 25,000 people globally and operates in 21 countries around the world. For more information, please visit www.cooperstandard.com.

CPS_G

CONTACT:

Cooper Standard

Chris Andrews

(248) 596- 6217

candrews@cooperstandard.com

SOURCE: Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc

accesswire.com

<https://www.accesswire.com/648082/Cooper-Standard-Issues-2020-Corporate-Responsibility-Report-Highlighting-Record-Safety-Performance-Customer-Recognition-and-COVID-19-Response>